Our Privacy Statement

At rb lawyers, we have always placed the highest emphasis on keeping the information you give us confidential.

With the introduction of the National Privacy Principles, this affirms our resolve to maintain the highest level of confidentiality when it comes to you and your instructions to us.

There will be times where to best promote your case, we must disclose to Third Parties information about you and your circumstances. However, this will only be done strictly in accordance with the Principles.

We will never disclose information about you or your case contrary to these Principles.

So please rest assured that you will always be dealing with us in the strictest of confidence!

Thank you for choosing us – it is much appreciated,
